

This is the overall layout of the condo. We will have tile in the bathrooms and kitchen, and we have existing hardwood in the office. Everything else is getting new hardwood

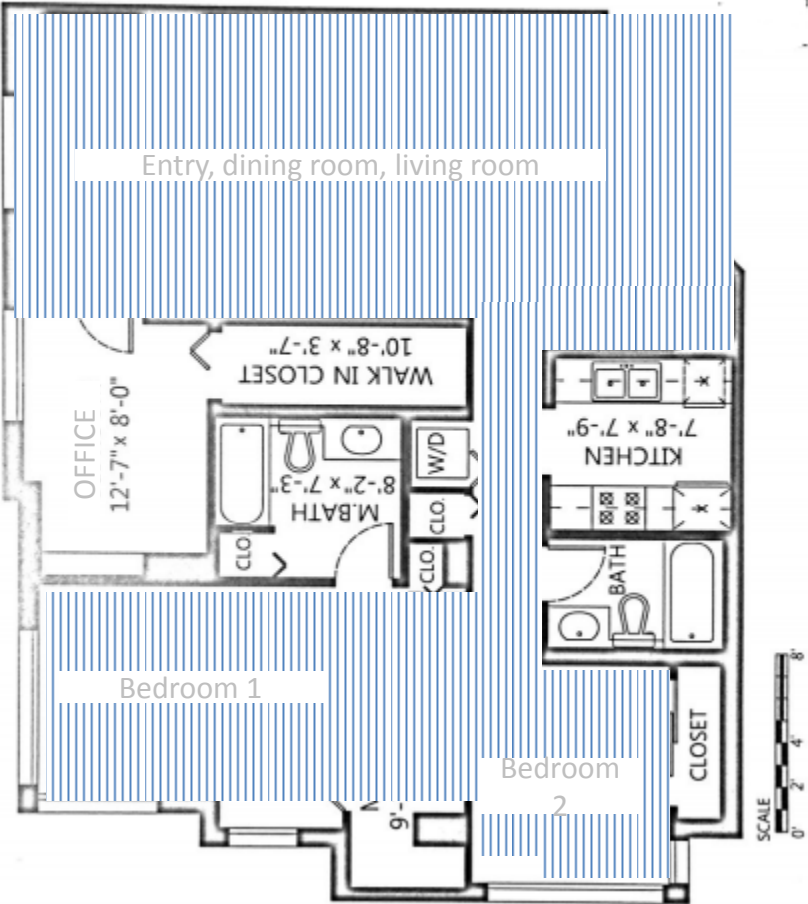

East Facing windows

Option A – run everything lengthwise – starting with the living/dining area

Option B – run everything the other way to have the hallway flow through better

Option C – change direction in the hallway

